OFFICIAL POLITICAL CALENDAR FOR THE YEAR 1962

---

Prepared and Approved by the State Election Board of Indiana

All hours of day referred to in the following political calendar are controlled by Central Standard Time.

Wherever in this calendar there is a citation of authority appearing as follows: (Sec. 1) reference is being made to the Indiana Election Code, and wherever after such citation appears a citation as follows: (29-5028) reference is being made to Burns' Indiana Statutes of 1933 and the latest replacements and supplements thereto.

February 5. Beginning of last session of the board of county commissioners at which it may create new or change boundaries of precincts until after the 1962 November election, except as to city precincts prior to city primaries and elections, unless the board should adopt voting machines, and then at the June session only for the purpose of combining two or more preeincts into one. (Secs. 78, 79) 29-3502, 29-3503, also 26-550, Sec. 79 amended by Acts 1949, Ch. 25, Sec. 7.

February 7. Last day for county chairman of the republican party and the county chairman of the democratic party to nominate in writing a member of his party for appointment as a member of the county election board. (Sec. 17) 29-3102, amended by Acts 1953, Ch. 239, Sec. 7.

February 8. First day for appointment of members of the county election board by clerk of the circuit court, where county chairman has failed to make a nomination in writing, of a member of his party. (Sec. 17) 29-3102, amended by Acts 1953, Ch. 239, Sec. 7.

February 17. Last day for appointment of members of county election board by clerk of the circuit court where county chairman has failed to make a nomination in writing of a member of his party. (Sec. 17) 29-3102, amended by Acts 1953, Ch. 239, Sec. 7.

February 27. First day a declaration can be filed with the clerk of the circuit court for the primary election by a candidate for a county office, or with the secretary of state if for a legislative, congressional or judicial office, including prosecuting attorney. (Sec. 87) 29-3605, amended by Acts 1957, Ch. 110, Sec. 1.

February 27. First day that a candidate for precinct committeeman may file a declaration of candidacy with the clerk of the circuit court. (Sec. 87) 29-3605, amended by Acts 1957, Ch. 110, Sec. 1.

February 27. First day a candidate for delegate to state convention may file declaration of candidacy with clerk of circuit court. (Sec. 104) 29-3704, amended by Acts 1953, Ch. 137, Sec. 1.

March 1. On or before this date the county commissioners shall meet and rearrange the several voting precincts of their county to include any newly annexed territory to any city therein, in such manner that the boundaries of the several precincts of such county in cities shall be coextensive with the boundaries of such cities and the wards thereof. (Sec. 79) 29-3503, amended by Acts 1949, Ch. 25, Sec. 7.

March 3. Last day board of county commissioners may change precinct boundaries until after the 1962 November election except as to city precincts, unless the board should adopt voting machines, and then only by combining one or more precincts into one. (Sec. 78) 29-3502, also 26-550.

Note: Ten (10) days after such February session notice of the change should be given as provided by law. (Sects. 78, 82) 29-3502, 29-3506.

March 9. Last day that a hotel manager or lodging house manager may prepare a list of residents for delivery to the poll takers who call upon him. A copy of this list must be retained by the hotel manager or lodging house manager for at least 40 days thereafter. (Sec. 185) 29-4702.

March 9. Last day for board of registration in counties having a population of 80,000 or more to transmit to republican and democratic county chairmen memoranda showing all original registrations and transfers in registrations occurring in registration period ending 65 days before primary, being March 4, 1962, with such other information as required by law. Thereafter such memoranda of registrations, beginning March 4, 1962, 65 days before the primary, and ending April 9, 1962, 29 days before the primary, shall be furnished such county chairmen daily and within 48 hours after such additional changes are made. (Sec. 50) 29-3406, also 29-4314, Sec. 50 amended by Acts 1957, Ch. 208, Sec. 1.

March 9. Last day for board of registration in counties having a population of 80,000 or more and the clerk of the circuit court in the remaining counties to transmit to the republican and democratic county chairmen names and addresses of cancelled registrations. Thereafter a list of such cancellations shall be reported daily to such chairmen and within 48 hours of the day on which such cancellations were made until the day of the primary, which is May 8th. (Sec. 69) 29-3425.

March 13. Last day for board of county commissioners to give notice of the establishment of precincts or changes of boundaries thereof, except where voting machines may later be adopted. (Sec. 78) 29-3502.

March 24. Last day for clerk of the circuit court to estimate the number of absent voters' ballots required for the primary election. (Sec. 218) 29-4925, amended by Acts 1949, Ch. 25, Sec. 19.

March 29. Last day a declaration can be filed with the clerk of the circuit court by a candidate for a county or township office or with the secretary of state, if for a legislative, congressional or judicial office, including prosecuting attorney. (Sec. 87) 29-3605, amended by Acts 1957, Ch. 110, Sec. 1.

the rate of growth, which was very rapid, and continued to increase until about 1910, when it reached a maximum of 1.2% per annum. Since then, however, the rate of growth has been declining, and by 1930 had fallen to 0.7% per annum. This decline in the rate of growth is due to the fact that the number of new houses built each year has been decreasing, and the number of old houses demolished has been increasing. The result is that the rate of growth of the total number of houses is now much slower than it was in 1910.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the population. The population of the United States has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of new houses built each year. The number of new houses built each year has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of old houses demolished each year. The number of old houses demolished each year has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of houses sold each year. The number of houses sold each year has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of houses rented each year. The number of houses rented each year has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of houses owned by individuals. The number of houses owned by individuals has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.

The rate of growth of the total number of houses is also affected by the rate of growth of the number of houses owned by corporations. The number of houses owned by corporations has been increasing at a steady rate since 1910, and this has contributed to the increase in the rate of growth of the total number of houses.
